

- HYDROMAT Ltd. is a family company that is, for last 40 years, dealing with design, construction and production of own high-tech products: hydraulic cylinders, industrial shock absorbers, hydraulic equipment and devices, flowcontrol, valve automation and actuator technology.
- Expert staff and modern technology used in our company together with tight collaboration with scientific institutions and universities and renowned international manufacturers of valves, hydraulic components and equipment are guarantee for the successful solution of complex problems in the field of hydraulics and automation, flow control and production of actuators, hydraulic cylinders and equipment.
- Basic principle during of the design and manufacture of our products are not the cheapest but optimal, reliable and refined technical solutions, proven by increasing interest and international orders. To achieve this in addition to compliance with international standards and regulations in our products we use quality materials and components from renowned manufacturers in the world.
- The above confirms that slowly but surely we are becoming a leading manufacturer of valve actuator technology and automation in the region.
- For previous work and innovation the company has received numerous honours and awards at national and international professional fairs and presentations.